Name: Gift Christian
NETID: f007vkd

Observations:

1. A small pop window has appeared.
2. The title of the window is "cs1"
3. Its size is fixed as in it cannot be maximized nor minimized.
4. Inside the window are appearing multiple ovals at random positions of the window.
5. The ovals are of various colors. The color can reappear again after some time.
6. Common colors are green, pink, light-green, blue, purple, etc.
7. The ovals are overlapping on one another. A new oval would appear on top of another one.
8. The colored background of the ovals are not entirely opaque. They are to some point see-through.
9. The ovals can appear at any position on the window.
10. The program doesn't appear to end any time soon (unless cancelled).
11. The message inside the ovals is "Welcome to CS1"
